Calhoun Baptist Association
Summer Missionary Job Description

The Summer Missionary will serve within the association by assisting in Vacation Bible Schools and providing additional ministry support as needs arise.

Summary of Essential Functions

1. Arrive at the assigned Vacation Bible School location at least 30 minutes before the start time each day.
2. Meet with the VBS Director upon arrival to receive the week's assignment and be prepared to serve in the designated role.
3. Become familiar with and be able to assist with VBS Bible curriculum from both Answers in Genesis and Lifeway.
4. Learn and be ready to help with the music for both Lifeway and Answers in Genesis VBS programs.
5. Attend the February team meeting.
6. Participate in the state VBS training in March (Huntsville).
7. Lead the associational music-rotation training in March and assist with the opening session.
8. Attend all additional training meetings prior to the start of summer ministry.

Qualifications

1. Must be a maturing follower of Christ and an active member of a Southern Baptist congregation.
2. Must provide a letter of recommendation from the pastor of their home church.
3. Must submit a written testimony of their salvation experience and their sense of calling to serve in summer missions.
4. Must have a servant's heart and a willingness to minister in a variety of roles for the furtherance of the gospel of Christ.
5. Must be at least 16 years old and possess a valid driver's license.
6. Must abstain from all use of alcohol, tobacco, and any non-prescription, mind-altering, or addictive substances.
7. Must abstain from sexual promiscuity and avoid the appearance of such behavior.
8. Must conduct one's life in a manner consistent with accepted Christian values and biblical standards.
9. Must dress modestly and maintain a Christ-honoring appearance in all ministry settings.
10. Must be able to work well with church leaders, VBS Directors, children, and fellow team members.
11. Must be reliable, punctual, and able to maintain a consistent schedule throughout the summer.
12. Must possess strong communication skills along with a positive and flexible attitude.
13. Must be able to travel to various churches within the association as required.
14. Must attend all required training, including the February team meeting, the state training in March (Huntsville), the associational training in March, and all pre-summer meetings.

Schedule

The Summer Missionary schedule will be based on requests from CBA churches. The VBS season typically begins when summer break starts and concludes when summer break ends. Workload may vary from week to week, and some weeks may include both morning and evening VBS sessions. A finalized VBS schedule and list of Summer Missionary assignments will be provided as early as possible.

Supervision and Authority

Although employed by the association, the Summer Missionary will be supervised by the Director of Missions—or a CBA staff member designated by the DOM—in collaboration with the Association's Missions Committee.
